

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

SATURDAY EVE, NOVEMBER 8, 1884

If you are determined to live and die a slave to custom see that at least it is a good one.

West Virginia sends greeting to the nation with an increased majority for Cleveland.

Scattering returns from Texas indicate that the Democrats are sure of a small plurality—say 100,000.

The Congressional race is very close and as we said yesterday it will require the official returns to determine who is elected. The Republicans still claim Mr. Wadsworth's election by about one hundred.

CLEVELAND is certainly elected by the following electoral vote:

The South	153
New York	36
Indiana	13
New Jersey	9
Connecticut	7
Total	208

This six o'clock edition of the Cincinnati Times-Star of yesterday afternoon, says: "It looks to day blue for the Republicans. The official count is progressing, and, according to the Associated Press, shows large Democratic gains over the figures which it had previously given out. The New York Tribune still claims the State, but appears to base its claim on Associated Press figures without taking into consideration the corrections which the Associated Press itself announces."

This Albany Journal says: "On Tuesday the boards or supervisors meet in various counties and canvass the returns. Their duties are purely clerical. They simply add up the total returns of towns, election districts and wards, certify to their accuracy and transmit the certified returns to the Secretary of State. "During this month the State Board of Canvassers, consisting of Secretary Carr, Comptroller Chapin, Attorney-General O'Brien, State Treasurer Maxwell, and State Engineer Sweet meet in this city and add up the totals of the Supervisors' returns from the counties, and the result is the official vote of the State; and according to that result the certificates of election are issued by the State Board of Presidential Electors who have been chosen."

This Albany Argus says: "No fraudulent commission will put James G. Blaine in the White House, or keep Grover Cleveland out of it. The men who attempt it will be killed and the legal consequences of killing them will be taken care of afterward. Gov. Cleveland said: 'I believe I have been elected President, and nothing but the grossest fraud can keep me out of it, and that we will not permit.' Gen. Carr, Secretary of State and a Republican, says: 'There is no chance for stealing this State, not as long as I have charge of the affair. I don't suppose that any body shall steal the State. If Mr. Cleveland has a plurality, large or small, he will get it. The same is true of the other candidate. I don't propose to play any Southern game. No matter whether it is a friend or foe, with me he has to have his justice.'"

Victory Assured.

[Special to the Courier-Examiner.] New York, Nov. 7, 2 a. m.—Boys, we may get them this time. They may kick and squeal as much as they like, but I have seen the official vote of each county in the State of New York, and I tell you Cleveland and Hendricks have a majority over Blaine and Logan. Utterly disregard all other dispatches to the contrary, and bet every dollar you have got on what I tell you. But make your bets that Cleveland will receive the electoral vote of the State of New York, and will be the next President of the United States. O. O. S.

Matrimonial Mine in Manitoba.

[Hartford Sunday Journal.] Talking about matrimonial schemes, there is a young woman up in Manitoba who certainly should command the sincere reverence of her sex. She is English—came over a few months ago, landing in Manitoba a perfect stranger. Since then she has succeeded in getting a husband for herself and mates for 117 of unmarried countrywomen. Now, if I were a lady whose age was beginning to waver a little on uncertainty I would open up a correspondence with a woman at once; but if I were a confirmed old bachelor resident of Manitoba, I would take to the woods to-morrow morning.

A Tight Squeeze.

[From the Boston Herald-Examiner.] "William Broker," she said to her husband very earnestly, as they sat at the breakfast table, "look me in the eye and tell me the truth; are you loving all your money in a firm speculation?" He was seized to death when she first began, but conscious innocence gave him strength and courage as she concluded her question. "No," he said firmly, "I am not." "I believe you are," she said, shaking her head, "for last night you cried in your sleep, and said you had lost every chip you had in the world on one little piece." And then he gasped and admitted that he had dropped a few cases in a little deal in perishable fruits. But it was the narrowest escape he ever had in his life.

CONDENSED NEWS.

FOREIGN.

STEAMSHIP LINES. LONDON, Nov. 8.—The London Times publishes the statement that an amalgamation between the Guion and Cunard steamship lines is imminent. The Atlantic steamship companies of Hamburg, Bremen, Antwerp and Havre have favorably received the proposals of English steamship companies to form the passenger carrying line to ports in America at the minimum price of five guineas per head, the arrangement to go into effect February.

THE BULLIAN FUND. LONDON, Nov. 8.—Subscriptions to the fund which is being raised for the widow of the late A. M. Sullivan, M. P., come in slowly, notwithstanding the magnanimous offer made by Mr. Wm. O'Brien to divert all his income for the purpose. The fund is a scandalous trial to that purpose. Mr. Sullivan's friends now fear that the effort in her behalf will result in failure.

THE FRANCO-CHINESE WAR. PARIS, Nov. 8.—Prime Minister Ferry has informed England that if China accepts mediation without delay, or increasing further the expenses by military operations, France will limit its claim to indemnity to $400,000. Sir George Gordon, Governor of Hong Kong, has been ordered by telegram to refuse permission to any French men-of-war to refit or stop at the harbor of Hong Kong within the limits of that colony.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—John Shannon, the young man who was shot by Patrol Sergeant James Dunn, in front of the Enquirer office on last Wednesday afternoon, died at the City Hospital of peritonitis. Before dying he made a statement to the effect that he made no attempt to draw a weapon, and that he made no threats. His relatives at Campbell's Court-house, Virginia, have been notified of his death, and will probably arrive in a few days and take charge of the body. Dunn is at present released on a $500 bond, furnished by George Campbell. The charge will be changed to murder as soon as possible.

W. Lowry to duty as a lieutenant in the Eleventh Light Infantry District. Lieutenant Charles J. Banger has been detached from the Alert, and ordered to duty at Washington Navy Yard in ordnance instruction.

Going to the New Orleans Exposition. ARLING, Tex., Nov. 8.—A company of sixty men, said to be the pick of the Mexican army, arrived in this city on the east-bound train, en route to New Orleans. The train had extra cars and was late. The men were accompanied by native mechanics, and will remain with the Mexican exhibits during the exposition.

A Wandering Lunatic. PIQUA, O., Nov. 8.—A lunatic with manacles on his wrists was found wandering on his hands for several days. He is supposed to be a lunatic about twenty-two years old, and is roughly clad. It is believed he belongs to Shelby County, but no inquiry has yet been made for him.

covering the returns is attributable to the fact of the thousands of widely-scattered offices that had to be heard from.

The Feeling in London.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—The market for American securities remains quiet and little change quoted. Investors are waiting official news confirming the election of Cleveland before doing anything. The tendency is to buy largely of all American shares except Gould shares. Fall Mail Democrats are making good use of the opportunity offered by the non-receipt of official news denying Cleveland's election to doom Republicans to a lengthened exclusion from the Presidency, and say Democrats will thus reap the record of having saved the Republic from corruption.

Congratulating Ireland.

ALBANY, Nov. 7.—There was practically no business done at the State Capital yesterday. During the afternoon the heads and attorneys of the departments flocked to the executive chamber to congratulate the Governor. Many ladies also came. Cleveland was cool and collected amid all the excitement. He received the congratulations in a quietly dignified yet affable manner, and thanked all for their kindly interest in the success of the party and of himself.

The Cabinet.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—Cabinet formulators are already preparing their States. It is stated on good authority that in the event of Cleveland's election his Cabinet will be as follows:

Secretary of the Treasury, B. F. Jonas, of Pennsylvania.
Secretary of War, General Joseph Hawley, of Connecticut.
Secretary of the Interior, Senator P. B. Plumb, of Kansas.

Attorney General, Stewart L. Woodford, of New York.

No Wonder.

A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS.

Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical ailment combine, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Frampton, of Huntington, W. Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of nervous debility, the best cure at the time was inflamed and mortified, which caused running sores. He says: "Pieces of bone the size of a silver three cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been in the hands of the best physicians, but the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntington worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PERUNA, and now I am well. I can walk as good as anybody, and have perfect use of my limbs."

Mr. A. L. Hart, of Worcester, Ohio, writes: "Dr. HARTMAN, Columbus, O., I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, chronic catarrh of the stomach. I have thoroughly tried your MAXALIN, and it has done me more good ten-fold than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of them."

Mr. Edgar Hart, of Metzger P. O., Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be a real benefit. I also give it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburgh, Pa., writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied the different drug stores for one of your books. They claim they have none on hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Canonsburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your medicine, PERUNA. I have sold immense quantities of it, and consider it a staple article. I have a great many customers who think there is no medicine like it for a tonic or for building up the system. I recommend it as a safe, reliable remedy."

Go to Mrs. Russell's for bargains in millinery and notions, women's coats, dresses and hats. All the goods are offered at a bargain. I am going to quit the business. 18th
